If there is not enough information to answer Right or Wrong, choose Doesn't Say

OUR BAND

Fourteen-year-old Emma peters talks about her new band.

Soon it will be the summer holidays again. I'm not going away with my parents this year but I don't mind. I'm going to spend most of my time with two of my classmates, Bella and Lou.

We've just started a rock band which we call Sunshine. I play the guitar and sing, Bella plays the guitar and keyboard and Lou plays the drums. We practise in Lou's dad's garage and we also play in music shops and local cafes. The band has been together for four months and we're all very good friends. I was in a different band last year but it wasn't so much fun. No one wanted to practise.

We've written several songs and we have our own website. During the summer we are going to make a CD with ten or maybe twelve songs on it. We're not sure yet. We haven't finished writing all the songs, but we've decided on the name of the CD. We're going to call it Red Room. The CD may not make us famous, but that doesn't matter – we just enjoy our music and sharing it with other people. I can't think of a better way to spend the summer.

- 1) Emma's summer holiday has already begun.

2) Emma would like to go somewhere with her family this summer.

3) Emma goes to the same school as the other members of the band, Sunshine.

4) Each of the three girls in the band plays an instrument.

5) The band is paid for playing in shops and cafes.

6) Emma says that her first band worked very hard.

7) The three girls have decided how many songs their CD will have.

8) The three girls hope their CD will make them famous.
