2. READING. Read the money-saving stories. Are the statements (1-6) TRUE (T) or FALSE (F)?

Amy, London
I like to keep fit but I don't want to work out on an expensive gym. Everything's expensive in London, but there are lots of parks. So I bought some running shoes, and started to go running in the park. I also walk to school now. I save money and get fit at the same time.

Billy, Southampton
I wanted to change my bedroom and get a new desk, so I was checking out prices of bedroom furniture online when I found a website called Freecycle. Freecycling is when a person gives away things they don't need. I found a perfect small wooden desk for my bedroom, and it was free!

Rani, Bristol
Every time I go to a supermarket, I get a plastic bag. Every time I do exercise I have some water. Every time I go to a restaurant I have some cola. In future I`m going to buy a "Bag for Life" and drink tap water. I'll save money, and help the environment too.

Martin, Cardiff
My farther earns a lot of money, and he saves most of it, but he isn't mean. He buys my mum some flowers every Friday, and when he travels he always brings mum some perfume and some chocolates. But he has taught us to be quite frugal. His advice is, when you want to buy something, ask yourself two questions. First, do you really need it? And secondly, can you get it cheaper somewhere else?

Julie
I love designer clothes and the latest fashions, and I really want a cool pair of Gucci sunglasses. I need to save money , so here` s some advice for people like me – don't go shopping! Don't go to shopping centers, and don't use online shopping sites. They are dangerous!

- T? F?

2) Billy wanted to buy a desk online.

3) Freecycling is an online furniture shop.

4) Rani is worried about the environment.

5) Martin`s farther is mean.
